

Program tutorial Onderzoekschool Politieke Geschiedenis
Leiden, 15 9 April 2019

Theme: Working in an international academic community

Time: 15 April 2018 13.00 – 18.00

Location: Leiden, Doelensteeg 16, Huizinga building Conference room (2nd floor)

13.15	Opening by Henk te Velde
13.20	Laurien Crump-Gabreëls: Publishing with an international publisher
14.00	Tom Duurland: Lessons learned from organizing an (international) seminar
14.30	Margit van der Steen: Introducing the Association for Political History
14.40	Lauren Lauret and Erik de Lange: International networking opportunities for PhD and the Political History PhD Network
15.15	Break
15.45	Discussion of the assignments with Henk te Velde and Margit van der Steen
17.00	Drinks
18.00	Closure

Speakers and organization

Dr. Laurien Crump-Gabreëls is associate professor political history and international relations at Utrecht University. Her PhD thesis was published with Routledge and awarded the George Blazyca prize for the best book on Eastern Europe in 2017.

Tom Duurland M.A. is PhD candidate at Leiden University and co-organizer of the research seminar New Horizons in Military History (Amsterdam 27 February 2019).

Erik de Lange M.A. is PhD candidate at Utrecht University and co-organizer of the international PhD workshop The Pursuit of Legitimacy. Power and its manifestations in Political History (Leiden 25-26 October 2018).

Lauren Lauret M.A. is PhD candidate at Leiden University and co-organizer of the international PhD workshop The Pursuit of Legitimacy. Power and its manifestations in Political History (Leiden 25-26 October 2018).

Dr. Margit van der Steen is managing director of the Research School Political History at Huygens ING and assistant professor at Leiden University.

Prof. dr. Henk te Velde is professor of Dutch History at Leiden University, board member of the Research School Political History and president of the Association for Political History.

Assignment

As a professional historian, you will have to present your research both in national and international conferences and you will have to be able to organize (international) seminars yourself. This assignment is meant to learn to present yourself and your research in an international context.

We therefore ask you to make an outline for a symposium in which you will present your research. We ask you to prepare this outline together with one or two of your colleague PhD candidates, preferably from different universities.

The outline consists of the following elements:

- Title of the seminar
- Theme
- Brief description of the theme; which issues will be addressed (250 – 500 words),
- Debates / research questions will be addressed
- Size of the conference (this may vary from a seminar of one afternoon to a three day event)
- Invited key note speaker(s)
- Describe how your research fits into the theme of this seminar

In the tutorial, we will discuss your plans. The plan for a seminar that looks most promising to be realized, can also be organized with some support from the Research School Political History and senior researchers.

Please mail a copy of your outline to h.tevelde@hum.leidenuniv.nl and margit.van.der.steen@huygens.knaw.nl before 6 April 2019

In order to prepare yourself for the tutorial, you are also requested to visit the website of the Association for Political History: <http://www.associationforpoliticalhistory.org/>

